

Five Legacies of Ancient Civilizations

Geography	The study of all the physical features of the earth's surface.
Government	A group of people who have the power to make and enforce laws for a country or area.
Religion	Peoples beliefs and opinions concerning the existence, nature, and worship deity or deities, and divine involvement in the universe and human life.
Technology/Art	The use of tools to meet practical human needs and to create beautiful works such as buildings, paintings, statues, etc..
Literacy (Language)	The human use of spoken or written words as a communication system.	